

Ewelina Koniec is opera singer from Poland. She graduated with distinction from Stanislaw Moniuszko Academy of Music in the Voice and Drama Department in Gdansk (Poland) in the class of Ewa Marciniak. In 2011 thanks to The Erasmus Programme Ewelina studied classical singing under the tuition of Janice Chapman at prestigious Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London. She is also an alumna of the Maria Curie-Sklodowska University in Lublin, Poland (Culture Studies).

Since 2014 she is a soloist of the Krakow Chamber Opera, where she made her debut at in W. A. Mozart's opera Bastien und Bastienne performing the title role. In Copenhagen, she has her vocal training with Nanna Hovmand. Today Ewelina is singing in various projects as a member of Nymphaea Vocal Ensemble.